The Rev Secretariat was Consulted And their recommendation was but the proposals of the Dy Comm'r may be approved. There are also precedents in support of this view, which I was, in the first instance, inclined to think as sound.

But on further Consideration I have changed my views. If the Dy Comm'r's recommendation is approved the lands will have to be treated as Sirkar and a Cash Grant of Rs 53-5-0, made to the temple annually as a permanent measure. After this order is passed, the person who has applied for the lands should withdraw his Chalan or resign them after keeping them in his possession for some time and there should be no demand for them afterwards, the result will be that

(1) Govt will get nothing from the lands, and

(2) will be obliged to pay

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the marginally noted Devadaya Inam lands in the Village of Hosur belonging to Sri Narasimha Devaru at Kohalli, Lakkavalli Sub Taluk have been lying fallow for the last 30 or 40 years and are overgrown with Scrub jungle and the kandayam of these lands is paid out of the temple funds. It is seen from the record Book hereinto that to bring these lands under cultivation a sum of two thousand Rupees will be required. Possibly the income from

Report after inspection that these may be returned to Government and given out for cultivation, and that the Jari amount of Rs 53-5-0 may be converted into a cash grant to the institution.

Under these circumstances I recommend the resumption of these Inam lands and the payment instead of a cash grant equal to the Jari amount of R. 53 5-0.
